

Area bridge closings in future could overload McKinley

In response to the MacArthur Bridge's closing, the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council has developed a plan of alternate routes for motorists who regularly use the MacArthur Bridge.

Gateway Council studies show that most motorists using the MacArthur Bridge will find the Poplar Street Bridge to be their most convenient alternative. Traveling west from the Belleville and Centerville areas, motorists have the option of using two main routes: Illinois Route 15 (Missouri Avenue) and Illinois Route 13 (Bond Avenue).

Coming from the Cahokia area, motorists can reach the Poplar Street Bridge via Illinois Route 3. Upon crossing the bridge, exit ramps to Memorial Drive, I-55, I-70 and Ninth Street will provide access to the downtown area.

Traveling east from downtown, the nearest access ramps to the Poplar Street Bridge are Memorial Drive and I-55. To get to Belleville or Centerville, motorists should exit onto Fourth Street or Tudor Avenue. Motorists traveling south to Cahokia should exit onto Illinois Route 3.

Latest traffic counts show that the bridge carries 4,800 vehicles a day. Computer simulations done by Gateway staff show that most of the motorists using the MacArthur Bridge will move to the Poplar Street Bridge. It is likely that the resulting increased congestion on the Poplar Street Bridge would cause further traffic shifts to the Eads and King Bridges. While the short-term impact of the MacArthur Bridge closing should not be great, the long-term implications could be very serious.

The decision to close the MacArthur Bridge highlights the gravity of the problems surrounding the downtown Mississippi River crossings. According to a major study of downtown bridges which Gateway completed in March 1980, while the MacArthur Bridge shutdown was imminent, it could just as easily have been the King Bridge or the Eads Bridge. All three are suffering from extension physical deterioration and financial distress.

These problems stem from a marked imbalance in traffic volumes on the downtown bridge network. The Gateway study showed that more than 80 percent of the motorists crossing the Mississippi River at St. Louis used the Poplar Street Bridge. The Poplar Street Bridge is the newest of the five downtown bridges and the only one connected to major state and interstate highways.

The remaining four bridges — Eads, King, MacArthur and McKinley at Venice — were plagued with serious underuse, together carrying less than half of the total bridge traffic. Hardest hit by this underuse are those bridges which depend on toll revenues to cover costs.

Meanwhile, maintenance requirements and costs are growing at a much faster rate than revenues for sustaining operations. "The point to be emphasized," said Matt Melucci, executive director of the Gateway

State's air quality improves, but GC particulates still rate highest

School classes to resume August 25

Air quality improved in 1980 in most parts of Illinois. However, unhealthy conditions still persist in several cities and industrial areas, according to a report released by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency.

Readings from the state's air pollution monitors generally showed lower average and peak air pollutant concentrations in 1980 than occurred in previous years.

"We expect the air quality to continue to improve," said Dave Kolaz, manager, Ambient Air Quality Section, Illinois EPA, "because of improving automotive and industrial air pollution controls. The air pollution data for the past several years shows a definite downward trend."

For the ninth year in a row the monitor measuring suspended particulate levels at 2001 East 20th Street in Granite City recorded the highest annual average in the state. The average concentration at the site, however, was 20 percent lower than the 1979 average. Similar improvements were recorded at other Granite City monitoring locations.

Lake Bluff had the lowest average particulate level. Of 109 monitors, 38 recorded annual averages above the health standard of 75 micrograms per cubic meters (ug-m3). Statewide particulate levels averaged 72 ug-m3 in 1980, down from 74 ug-m3 in 1979.

None of the 39 sulfur dioxide monitoring sites recorded annual averages in excess of the health standard, 0.03 parts per million (ppm). The monitoring site at 13th and Tudor in East St. Louis had the highest average, 0.024 ppm. Monitors in Des Plaines and Morton Grove registered the lowest levels, 0.003 ppm. Statewide, the average was 0.009 ppm in 1980; the average in 1979 was 0.012 ppm.

The 1980 year was the first year since the state began its air pollution warning system that no ozone yellow alerts were issued. The yellow stage is the second level in the state's four step warning system. Its purpose is to alert the public to high ozone readings and to order conservativ measures which will prevent air pollution from rising to the significant harm level.

Ozone, a pollutant which reaches its highest levels in sunny, warm and stagnant weather, found few opportunities in 1980 to reach high concentrations. The year's highest level, 0.17 ppm, was recorded in Edwardsville and Moline and Marion.

Nitrogen dioxide levels dropped significantly in 1980. The highest annual average in 1980 was 0.060 ppm in Cicero compared to a 0.078 ppm level at the same site in 1978. Throughout the Chicago area, 30 percent of the monitoring sites had averages above the federal health standard of 0.05 ppm. In 1979 percent of the sites exceeded the standard.

Carbon monoxide ambient concentrations were also lower in 1980. Only two monitoring sites, one at 160 North LaSalle Street in Chicago and the other at 6th and Monroe Streets in Springfield recorded violations of the carbon monoxide health standard. The Chicago site and 29 excursions in 1980. There were 59 in 1979 and 84 in 1978 at the same site. Excursions in Springfield jumped from one in 1979 to seven in 1980.

The lead monitoring station at 15th and Madison Streets in Granite City recorded lead averages in two calendar quarters above the health standard. A lead standard violation which popped up in Elgin in 1980 has since been discounted as being unrepresentative of surrounding air quality. An air vent from a basement pit firing range emitting a high concentration of lead a few feet away from a roof top lead monitor caused the high monitor readings.

Unsafe conditions for shoppers

Busy fall for college programs in this area

By PAT FOLEY
of the Press-Record

Unsafe and possibly life-threatening conditions existing in the parking lot at the Bellemore Village Shopping Center have been brought to the owner's attention through an investigation by the Press-Record.

Electrical junction boxes at the base of three light standards in the parking lot have been damaged or have faceplates missing, posing a danger for shoppers and others. Tangles of wires, some bare and others without protection, were seen to be protruding from the junction boxes Thursday afternoon.

One of the boxes had been open and the wires exposed for some time since some copper wires, which have been worn bare, had been discolored by oxidation.

All three of the electrical boxes are about three feet above ground level and are within reach of even small children. It is believed that the lights operate on 220 or 240 volts.

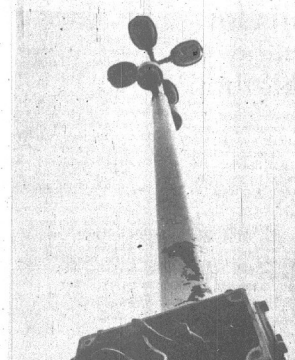

The most serious problem exists at what appears to be the main junction box for the parking lot lights near the entrance to the shopping center. The box apparently has been struck by vehicles breaking the cast-metal enclosure and allowing a tangle of wires to be exposed.

One of the other boxes in disrepair is located about 75 feet south of the main box and the other is on the north end of the lot.

A spokesman for the Wolff Construction Co., St. Louis, owner of the shopping center, said that they had not been notified of the problem, but was to have their electrician examine the boxes on Friday.

Emerald Dawes, a part-time employee of the shopping center owner, and Granite City's city inspector, said that the

The Quad-City area looms large in Belleville Area College District 322, due to its property tax base and also because of the daytime instructional center at Washington School in Granite City, the district's largest night school program at GCIS South, and a major night center at Madison High School.

With the fall term about to start, activity is beginning to accelerate in all these programs and at the main BAC campus, 2500 Carlyle Road, Belleville.

The new semester will start Aug. 24. Tuition for credit courses is $17 per credit hour, and most courses will last 16 weeks.

A BAC spokesman comments, "If you want to polish skills for a new job or learn a rewarding hobby, classes at the local extensions are for you."

"The day and night centers offer convenient hours regardless of one's work or family schedule. They provide a wide selection of transferable, college-credit courses as well as many self-improvement general studies classes."

At Washington (Granite City Day Center of BAC), 2600 W. 20th St., registration is being held on weekdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., now through Aug. 19.

Developers win the right to install water lines

Contractors building subdivisions within the Mitchell Public Water District may now use their own engineer and install their own water lines in their subdivisions — something the water district prohibited them from doing in the past.

The water district's ordinance regulating the engineering of water lines in new subdivisions has been officially declared null and void and the water district's board of trustees is to meet tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. in the water company's office, 245 E. Chain of Rocks Road, to determine whether a new ordinance is needed.

June 26, Associate Judge Thomas Hildebrand ruled "null and void" the water district's ordinance which demanded that anyone requesting extension of water service into a subdivision must hire the engineer of the district.

However, the judge gave the parties involved 30 days to file their objections to his order and no objections were received, so the order has been made final, according to Lucas' attorney, Norman Kinder.

The issue of whether the water company had the right to force subdividers to submit to competitive bidding on water line construction and to have the water district award the contract, using the subdivider's money, was raised legally by Stan Lucas, president of SEMCO Corp., after the water company refused to allow him to put in water lines himself in the Burton Subdivision.

Lucas also challenged the Madison County Special Sewer District for a nearly identical requirement and both districts for attempting to force SEMCO to design the water lines and sewer lines in his subdivision.

"It's my property and my money. I

Madison girl wins 2 national titles

Ginger Booker, 12, of Madison, won the national title of Sunflower Miss in the 11 through 14 age group at Las Vegas, Nev., last week.

The weeklong Sunflower Miss Pageant was presented at a Las Vegas hotel.

To mark her success in the pageant, Ginger received a crown, a banner and two large trophies.

The local girl also won first place in the Royal Miss Talent contest, staged in conjunction with the pageant, and was presented a second diamond tiara and trophy.

A talented singer, Ginger is the daughter of Mrs. Bobbie Booker, 1635 Market St., Madison.

She is a seventh grade pupil at St. Mary-St. Mark Parochial School in Madison. Ginger was awarded her first 1981 national title in July when she won first place in the National Regency Talent Pageant at the Marriott Hotel in St. Louis.

To attain the award, the youthful vocalist performed in the 11 to 14 age group at the advanced level.

She was eligible to take part in national competition at Las Vegas by becoming the Miss Illinois talent winner in a pageant at Harford Recreational Center in May.

Ginger was sponsored on her trip to Las Vegas by the

Split votes on accepting bids

Questions over work being done according to specification and if the construction company was in violation of a bid opening Thursday night during a regular meeting of the Madison School Board.

Two contracts were awarded G. & L. Construction of Madison who was low bidder.

G. & L. bid of $7,964, for the construction of a garage addition and two concrete floors, was low, followed by Madison County Roofing who bid $7,982. Skerle Construction noted the high bid of $10,923.

G. & L. submitted the low bid for the tract for conversion project at the middle school, at $4,480, with Skerle Construction bidding $10,432.

Questions were raised about union affiliation and $6,000 difference in one bid. Eldon Rhoads, maintenance supervisor for the school district, assured the board that G. & L. were union and both projects would be built in compliance with specifications.

G. & L. workers are members of the Congress of Independent Unions (CIU) with headquarters in Alton. Billie Bosworth voted no on a roll call vote in the awarding of the bids. Paul Bargiel, Frank Eaves, James Newsome, and Richard Zeissel voted yes.

Board President Sam Dymas and Don Garrett were absent from the meeting. T. H. M. d i s o n desegregation plan submitted to the state will probably be in effect for one year.

The Illinois State Board of Education sent a letter to all districts in the state noting in effect there would be no ruling for about a year on desegregation plans.

The letter noted that the Illinois Supreme Court has accepted the review of the Appellate Court decision invalidating the rules establishing requirements and procedures for the elimination and prevention of racial segregation in schools.

State Superintendent of Education Donald G. Gill's letter said in part, "Until the Illinois Supreme Court makes a final ruling, we will follow the policy established by the state board and the rules will not be enforced."

The board will use an open enrollment plan, which is basically the same system which they now operate.

However, any parents of white children that wish their children based to Blair school, the district will now furnish the transportation.

Kindergarten through third grade children attend Harris and Blair schools, with Blair being all black and Harris school about 75 percent white.

Pottery class at the Mounds

An Indian Pottery class will be held at Cahokia Mounds Museum, Aug. 17 to 21 from 9 a.m. until noon daily.

Participants will make their own pottery, beads, ornaments, and Indian pipes as they would have been made nearly 1,000 years ago. Students will learn how to build a primitive kiln and to fire pottery.

Children and adults will be welcome. Materials will be supplied. Cost is $25.

Classes will be taught by Donna Peters of the Museum of Natural History at Moundville, Ala. She has taught this class at Moundville, and has even taught pottery making to Indians.

The pottery class is sponsored by the Cahokia Mounds Museum Society. To register, Quad-Cityans may call Cahokia Mounds Museum at 344-5068, or write to Post Office Box 382, Collinsville, 62234.

NLRB orders employee reinstated

The National Labor Relations Board has decided to affirm the findings of an administrative law judge who ordered Taracorp Industries, 16th Street and Cleveland Blvd., to reinstate Fred Elmore, with full back pay and privileges since he had been denied union representation at a hearing in which he was fired in September, 1979.

Administrative Law Judge Thomas A. Ricci found in November, 1980, that Elmore, a feeder who loaded used car batteries on a moving belt, had refused a proper order to pull on the belt and help get it moving again when it stopped.

A supervisor ordered him to report to the manager's office and the manager then refused a request by Elmore that union officer George Siler be present, the judge found. The manager, Charles Harper, was quoted in testimony as saying, "You don't need George Siler. You have already been terminated. It's too late for George Siler."

The judge noted, "I can understand counsel for the respondent (Taracorp) saying in his brief that the (national labor relations) board's policy of ordering reinstatement in cases of this kind is wrong." He knows this employee was discharged for misbehavior and deserved to be dismissed. But what he conveniently overlooks is the purpose of union representation, which goes to the heart of the act. Has Siler been present at the investigation interview, he would have made some attempt to soften the blow, to persuade Harper, if not to complete forgiveness, at least to a lesser form of discipline. He never had the chance," Judge Ricci said. Taracorp appealed the decision to the National Labor Relations Board in Washington, D.C., and the board ruled July 31 to "affirm" the rulings, findings and conclusions of the administrative law judge and to adopt his recommended order.

Seminars in area on bank acquisitions

Multi-bank holding company seminars will be sponsored by the Association for Modern Banking in Illinois Apt. 2 and 3 at Buckley's Ramada Inn, Fairview Heights.

Senate Bill 578, which creates multi-bank holding companies and one additional limited service facility, was signed by Governor James R. Thompson, July 3. It will become effective Jan. 1, 1982.

James B. Watt, president of AMBI, said, "shareholders, directors, chief executive officers and the legal profession will be interested in learning the effect of this new law on the banking industry."

Facility for our seminars will include some of the best experts who have worked with structuring and acquiring multi-bank holding companies throughout the Midwest.

"Those Illinois bankers who wish to acquire banks, who wish to be acquired, and who wish to remain independent are encouraged to attend."

Subjects to be covered include details of the new law, federal policy on multi-bank holding companies, financial considerations from the accountant's point-of-view, legal considerations, the pricing process, and management considerations.

Major features of the new law are:
Five holding company regions will be established statewide, and a multi-bank holding company can acquire banks within the holding company's home region and one contiguous region.

After Jan. 1, 1982, newly chartered banks cannot be acquired until they have been in existence for ten years.

A multi-bank holding company will not be able to charter any new banks.

The law also provides for one additional limited service facility for a total of three. Banks are presently allowed one within 1,500 feet and another within 3,500 yards of the bank.

The additional facility will be allowed within the bank's home office county or, if outside of the county, no farther than 10 miles from the establishing bank. It cannot be established closer than one mile from the home office of another bank.

Real estate career night

Realty World-Star, Inc., 3701 Nameoki Road, will sponsor a special program for persons interested in obtaining information about a career in real estate at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 18.

The event will take place at the firm's office, located next to Brunswick Tri-Mor Bowl.

The public is invited to meet and talk with real estate brokers and associates. Questions will be answered, and a slide presentation will be followed with refreshments.

Persons wishing to attend are invited to call Shirley Fountain or John Blasingame at 876-0024.

Volunteers are sought for study

The University of Minnesota is seeking volunteers to participate in a national study. The National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute study is being conducted at four large medical centers—the University of Minnesota, the University of Arkansas, the University of Southern California and Lankenau Hospital in Philadelphia.

The research team is conducting this trial in hopes of determining the relationship of cholesterol lowering to heart disease. The study is seeking participants who have had their first and only heart attack during the past five years, are 29 through 64 years of age and free of diabetes, stroke and heart surgery. Volunteers are being sought at all four of the Hyperlipidemia Study Clinical Centers. For information, persons may call the University of Minnesota Hyperlipidemia Study collect at 1-612-376-4494.

State funds for Chicago buses

Governor James R. Thompson has approved nearly $92 million in public transportation grants for northeastern Illinois projects ranging from new buses throughout the area to continued rehabilitation work on the Chicago rapid transit system.

"It is essential that we preserve our public transportation facilities to prevent the kind of equipment breakdowns now affecting transit in New York and Boston," the governor said.

"The grants I have approved will improve transit and commuter railroad facilities and will upgrade the bus fleet."

"I am determined to do all that I can to assure the continuation of public transportation services to the more than one million people of northeastern Illinois dependent on such services every day."

"Including these grants, more than $164 million in state funds have been provided for such projects since I have been governor. The state funds in turn have provided the match to secure federal funds totaling $770 million."

The new projects are funded with federal transit funds of $734 million and $18.3 million in state funds. The state provides all of the matching funds needed to secure the federal grants.

Included are 200 new 50-passenger buses for the 2,400-bus Chicago fleet. Their cost is $30,000,000.

WOMAN ARRESTED

Kim M. Bernick, 20, of 2001 Iowa St., was charged with disorderly conduct and battery after she allegedly struggled with police officers in the lobby of the Granite City police building at Thursday evening. She and her husband came to the police station to try and resolve a family dispute and while discussing it, she allegedly screamed at her husband and tried to hit him, officers said. When they intervened, she allegedly kicked and hit police officers and force had to be used to jail her. She was released on $137 cash bond.

$500 request sparks debate on Granite City fund crisis

"It seems ridiculous that in a city with a $10 million budget, we can't find $500 to make a purchase," Granite City Alderman Warren Decatur concluded after a lengthy debate of the city council to find funds to purchase a mosquito-spraying backpack unit.

City Inspector Emerald Dawes asked the council at its last meeting for permission to purchase a $350 backpack sprayer to assist his department in spraying for mosquitoes in the Nameoki Ditch and in areas where the regular Jeep-mounted mosquito sprayer cannot reach.

Dawes said there is serious concern of an outbreak of encephalitis in this area and literally millions of germs, are ready to turn from larvae to the adult stage. Legislation which would declare this area an emergency area for encephalitis is on Governor Thompson's desk now and there is a possibility that state funds could be available soon to repay the city for the purchase, Dawes said.

Alderman Paul Fisk noted that he, Dawes and representatives of the state Department of Public Health saw a demonstration of Nameoki Township's backpack unit last week at the Granite City sewage treatment plant and they were very impressed with the demonstration.

"You could see it working on the mosquito larvae. It did the job in the water itself and worked on the mosquitoes who were dropping everywhere," Fisk told the council.

Alderman Max Warfield of the Sixth Ward said that in his ward, "We have an open ditch for three blocks (the Nameoki Ditch). When we sprayed it with the Jeep, it got a flat tire and had to be left there. This thing is desperately needed. If we get one child bitten by a mosquito-carrying encephalitis, we'll wish we had gotten it."

There was general agreement among the aldermen that the backpack would be a good thing to have, but there were objections that the money was not available. Alderman Fred "Pat" Schuman, a member of the council's finance committee, said, "This deficit department heads should make requests for what they have in their budgets. If they don't have the money, don't ask for it."

David Nolan, administrative aide to Mayor Paul Schuler (the mayor was absent), stated, "As it stands now, there is no money to make capital expenditures. That's why the mayor made his order there would be no capital expenditures this year."

Alderman Sharon Perjak noted that the city has invested $400,000 in interest-bearing bank notes and asked why the city was investing money when to borrow $1.2 million to meet the bills through tax collection time this year.

Nolan said the note is to end Aug. 17, after which that money is committed to other bills.

Alderman Jake Varadani suggested the interest from that investment be used to purchase the backpack sprayer. Earlier in the meeting, it had explained that the $400,000 which was needed immediately had been invested in an interest-bearing note. Warfield asked, "who borrowed money to put in the bank and collect interest. Who invested it?" City Clerk Robert W. Stevens responded, "Only the treasurer can do any investing."

Warfield noted that City Treasurer Nick Petrillo, who has been on sick leave, has not been present to answer any of the council's questions on a finance during all of the budget preparations and he requested that Petrillo be asked to attend the next meeting.

After it was pointed out that the city borrowed the money at 9 1/2 percent interest and it was invested at 14 percent interest, Schuman said jokingly, "Let's borrow more and invest it."

Alderman Mike Mudrusic made a motion that the purchase request be referred to the finance committee for a recommendation at the next council meeting, but Dawes noted that the next meeting is not for two weeks and the majority of the mosquito spraying should be done during that period.

He said the ditches, Dobrey Slough, Circle Drive and standing water in many areas should be sprayed immediately before the mosquitoes reach their adult stage. "There are a tremendous number of places we can't get with a truck or Jeep. That's where our mosquitoes are being raised. A tremendous amount of mosquitoes are being hatched," he added.

The council then decided to have the finance committee meet this week with the city clerk and authorize purchase of the backpack sprayer, if money can be found. Aldermen Paul Fisk and Carl Kittel voted against the motion, which passed 11-2.

Seek driver of hit-run auto

Granite City police have applied for a warrant for the arrest of a man who allegedly intentionally backed his car into the parked auto of Earl Fisher, 839 Niedringhaus Ave., in front of Fisher's home at 12:45 a.m. Friday and then left the scene.

Witnesses gave a description of the auto of police and Fisher said the description matched the auto of a man he worked with until about a month ago. Fisher said the man may have gone to the Chain of Rocks Mobile Home Park after the accident.

A Madison County sheriff's deputy checked that mobile home park and located a car matching that description which had fresh damage to the rear. Officials knocked at the door of the mobile home near the car, but there was no answer.

Police verified that the owner of the car was the co-worker of Fisher and agreed to apply for warrants for his arrest.

Witnesses to the accident said the westbound auto, passed Fisher's parked car, then stopped, backed into the left front door and left the scene.

Record spending by state

Even with $310 million in tax relief, state revenues increased $658 million in fiscal 1981, the second highest gain in history. But state spending climbed $651 million, the highest in the history of the Illinois general fund.

The result, State Comptroller Roland W. Burris says, was a drop in the general balance for fiscal year which ended June 30. Funds available on that date were $197 million, slightly below the $200 million "warning zone" level which Burris feels should be maintained to avoid cash flow problems when major payments are required.

The comptroller's latest monthly report reviews year-end balances over the last decade.

It notes that the current interest rate squeeze on Illinois savings institutions worsened this spring with net withdrawals of more than $72 million.

Burris said the fiscal 1981 year-end balance could have been $65 million higher had the governor fully utilized the surplus monies in 10 special funds, which Burris believes could be used to bolster the general fund.

Even revised estimates of the Bureau of the Budget showed large deviations between estimated and actual revenues, but accelerated spending — not the drop in the year-end balance, Burris says. State Treasurer Jerry Costantino says the big problem is declining tax revenue due to the recession.

"Fiscal experts differ on the definition of what constitutes a balanced budget," Burris said this week even when those different yardsticks are applied to Illinois, it is clear that the state has had more deficit years in the last decade than the truly balanced budgets claimed by some.

"Illinois' fiscal position certainly did decline in 1981 as a result of the largest annual spending surge in the history of the general fund and, by any measurement, the budget was not balanced."

The report sums up by saying that the economic picture for savings institutions in Illinois is not good.

High interest rates and the rapid growth of money market funds "deeply denting" the industry as small savers moved to circumvent the ceilings placed on regular bank and savings and loan time deposits.

In the first quarter of 1981, net savings in Illinois savings and loan institutions fell $73 million. During April,

Charged with beating brother

Marty Lynn Hatch, 19, of 2026 Washington Ave., was arrested at 8:30 p.m. Saturday on a battery complaint signed by his brother, Waymon Hatch, 2008 Washington Ave., Apt. 1.

Waymon Hatch stopped a police car in front of his apartment and said he had been beaten in his front yard. He was bleeding from the mouth and behind his left ear and told authorities that he had been punched on the mouth with a fist and had been hit on the ear with a beer bottle.

He slumped to the ground and police called for an ambulance, which transported him to St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

He left the medical center, however, without being treated and signed a complaint against his brother.

Marty Hatch was arrested at his home and was released on $35 cash bond.

WHEELS ARE STOLEN

Charged with throwing can at off-duty officer

Randy E. Long, 18, St. Charles, Mo., was charged with aggravated assault, criminal damage to an auto, reckless driving and illegal transportation of alcohol after he allegedly threw a can of beer at an off-duty Granite City policeman and then was chased by the policeman to Nameoki Road and Jill Avenue, where he was arrested.

Patrolman Mike Murgie said he had gotten off duty in uniform and was driving home at 11:40 p.m. Thursday in his private car when he noticed three youths in a blue Volkswagen following him.

When Murgie parked his car in the Village One Apartments and started to get out, the driver of the car, allegedly Long, threw a large can of beer at him which struck his car very close to him.

Murgie got back in his car and chased the Volkswagen on Pontoon Road to behind St. Elizabeth School, where he tried to pass the Volkswagen, but alleged that the Long turned his car to the left, striking the side of Murgie's car.

The chase continued east on Arroyo Avenue to Washburn, then on Washburn to Johnson Road, west to Carlson Avenue, south to Jill Avenue and west onto Nameoki Road, where the Volkswagen got caught in traffic and Murgie walked up to the car with his service revolver drawn and ordered the occupants out of the car. Five cans of beer were on the front floorboard, Murgie alleged. He ordered the three to follow him to the police station in their car and they complied. At the station Long was allegedly abusive and tried to strike Murgie with a knee. Force was used to subdue him and put him in a jail cell, it was reported.

The two passengers in the car were released without being charged.

It is alleged that Nagle and Violet Shumate, 33, of 4012 Laura Ave., Pontoon Beach, were seen removing a television and stereo from the home of John Shumate, 2908 Washington Ave., Apt. 4, July 30. She was charged July 30.

Curve Inn burns

The Curve Inn Tavern, 2618 Highway 67 (Missouri Ave.), was nearly destroyed by fire at 5:30 a.m. Friday. Venice and Madison fire departments responded to the fire and were at the scene for about two hours.

The building suffered an estimated $10,000 damage, according to one fireman. The cause of the fire is unknown and Missouri Avenue was blocked for several hours during the fire and clean up.

Hearing on lock project

A post-authorization public meeting on the replacement of Lock and Dam No. 26 will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 9 at the Bel Air Hilton Hotel, Fourth and Washington in St. Louis. The meeting is scheduled for 7-11 p.m. starting time.

The St. Louis District, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers is holding the meeting to comply with the direction issued by the U.S. Congress in the National Flood Control Act of 1968. In the notice being circulated to interested parties, the Corps stresses that comments at the hearing will not address the issues that have been decided by the various court decisions or by the Congressional action. These issues include the pre-authorization cost-benefit analysis or the final environmental statement.

Oral presentations will be limited to five minutes, but written statements may be submitted for inclusion in the official meeting record. Construction on the new dam was started in late 1979 following lengthy court actions. The new structure is located near Alton, Illinois, two miles downstream of the existing locks and dam. Congress has authorized the building of the new lock with one 1,200 foot lock and included provisions for possible future expansion. Fact sheets describing the project and presenting updated information will be available from the Corps District Office and at the meeting.

An electrical short-circuit in an air conditioner is believed to have started a fire which caused an estimated $25,000 to McGraw Auto Body, 2340 E. 24th St., at 9:25 p.m. Thursday.

Fire broke out in the apartment above the body shop and spread, causing an estimated $15,000 damage to the building and $10,000 damage to the shop.

The building is owned by Betty Townsley and is occupied by Jim Canton and Bill McCarty.

Firemen were on the scene two hours.

Mrs. Shafer looked out the window to see a young man and woman running from the scene. She said the front window of the home had been broken with a brick about 4 a.m. Friday by a young man and woman she knew, but she declined at that time to prosecute.

TWO WOMEN HURT

Philonema McDaniel, 43, of 1513 St. Clair Ave., and Novella Magby, 68, of 813 Washington, Madison, were injured when their cars collided at 21st Street and Madison Avenue at 1 p.m. Thursday. An $800 engagement ring is the only thing known missing after a burglary at the home of Laura Schooley, 2620 E. 27th St., between 6:20 and 9:35 p.m. Sunday. She returned home to find a window and a door open and a bedroom ransacked. Entry was believed gained through an unlocked window.

TAKE 'BUG WHACKER'

State fund spending decrease

By AL MANNING

SPRINGFIELD — The political reality of the Thompson administration is one of cut, cut, cut.

Governor Thompson cut his own budget twice in April, and recently announced further reductions in state appropriations.

Spending in all state funds will actually decrease by $372 million in the next fiscal year.

However, the cut at the state level should in no way be compared to the drastic program reductions being made in Washington by the Reagan administration.

Thompson is not cutting so much as he is attempting to maintain the status quo. He is attempting to control the growth of government by providing the same services and the same tax rates.

In fact, the General Fund, the key source of funding for the operations of state government, is increasing this fiscal year by $263 million.

Even with all of the announced "cuts," the General Fund will increase by 3.5 percent. For example, the perception is that education funds have been slashed. Although Thompson has reduced the amount of money requested by the State Board of Education and appropriated by the General Assembly, the amount of new money available for education programs is increasing by $69 million over the last fiscal year.

The state is moving ahead with plans to increase the amount of space for prisons including the construction of a new medium security prison at Vienna.

And those cuts in Medicaid are less than drastic. There were some rather minor adjustments made in the welfare program, but Illinois eventually did not slash the optional benefits which have been provided for years to recipients.

The reality is that welfare expenditures are somewhat uncontrollable, and the case-load is reaching historic levels because of the poor national economy.

The fact that Thompson has not cut as much as it appears should not be construed as criticism of the governor.

He and his budget director, Bob Mandeville, have not attempted to distort the state's financial condition.

They have been candid in discussing the finances and even volunteered the information about the increase in the General Fund.

But budget figures are difficult to comprehend, even by those familiar with state government, so in all likelihood the lasting political image will be that Thompson is cutting the budget.

And the governor's budgetary decisions may prove to be entirely correct — one national study already rates Illinois as the best managed state in the country. Many other states have raised taxes, and a number of them are in far worse financial condition than Illinois.

In determining the governor's philosophy, however, it should be remembered that the state is facing a tax increase during the last session of the General Assembly. Only after failing in his attempt to raise taxes did the governor announce further reductions in the state budget.

He first proposed a gross receipts tax on oil companies to finance highway construction and mass transit, and when that plan failed he proposed an increase in the sales tax. The legislature rejected that idea, too.

If Thompson was truly a budget cutting governor, he would not have proposed those tax increases.

And he would not have resisted other scheduled tax reductions. The sales tax on food and drugs, which is supposedly in the process of being phased out, was maintained at the same level at the urging of the governor.

And the rollback on the sales tax on business machinery was delayed for at least a year.

The legislature actually did little if any damage to the governor's budget. Mandeville, in a candid assessment, said the legislature came closer to appropriating the governor's desired level than at any time since 1978 when the state was indeed faced with severe financial problems.

But, he says, the amount appropriated by the legislature exceeded that wanted by the governor, so Thompson is vetoing $245 million in the bills sent him — and reinforcing the budget cutting image.

Thompson is able to balance the budget in a large part by reducing the amount of highway construction.

In addition, he is reducing the state's contribution to five retirement systems by $183 million. Politically speaking, the decision concerns virtually only those employees who are affected.

Cutting the state's share of pension funding is certainly less risky than reducing tangible state services.

Also, he has shifted some of the tax burden from the state to local governments. For example, the state saves $2 million by forcing counties to pay the salaries of the state's attorneys. And, of course, Chicago is raising taxes to pay for mass transit.

Thompson may indeed rate high marks for his handling of the budget. But if he deserves credit, it should be for maintaining the status quo in times of high inflation and not for cutting programs and services.

Woman struck

Rosalind Gray, 122 Lee Wright Highway, Venice, suffered a cut lip and lost a tooth when she was attacked by a man who forced his way into her apartment at 5:35 p.m. Saturday.

She told police that she and the man had been to East St. Louis and returned to her apartment. When she started to exit the car, he allegedly grabbed her and tried to choke her. She broke free and ran to her apartment, but when she tried to close the door, the man pushed his way inside and refused to leave.

She said he slapped her face and then punched her, knocking out her tooth. As he left, he threatened her, she said.

She was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where she was treated and released.

The Belleville Area College financial aid and placement office will be open from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Aug. 11 and 12.

The evening hours were scheduled for the convenience of students who cannot visit the main campus during the daytime.

Larry Schmalenberger, dean of community services and general studies, was the key BAC official on the scene when the local daytime college center was started.

He recalls, "When the center opened in the fall of 1979, it was an experiment in bringing classes closer to residents of the northern part of District 522, and basically was established in response to the energy crisis.

This year, it has been experiencing a record high summer enrollment, and plans a full schedule for this fall.

"BAC at Granite City offers on weekdays a cross-section of the most popular courses taught on the Belleville campus. About 40 courses in career and baccalaureate programs are given each semester, and the favorites here have been business, accounting, general psychology, typing and sociology.

Most are entry-level classes not requiring laboratory facilities. Whenever the enrollment allows, second-level courses are taught.

"A number of students cannot attend night classes and also cannot get to our main campus. The day center provides a chance for us to better serve a community—Granite City, Madison, Jefferson, Pontoon Beach and Mitchell—that is supporting BAC very well.

"Our goal of generating 2,000 credit hours during the center's first semester of operation was exceeded by 500. More than 400 students enroll each semester, and nearly 150 registered for 450 credit hours this summer.

"The day center employs a full-time secretary, Alma Ramey, and a full-time maintenance man, Alfred Jorns. Instructors include full-time teachers who split their time between Granite City and Belleville, and part-time teachers who live in the area.

All classrooms at the day center are air-conditioned and former playground space surrounding the school has been fenced and lined for parking."

Lucas said he felt the order gave him the authority to hire his own engineer and to construct his own water lines by, in effect, violating the water company's ordinance, which remained in effect.

Dawes did indicate that the faceplate on the box at the north end of the parking lot had been removed more than a year ago, but that it had been fixed at that time.

The necessary parts to make the repairs were ordered by the firm, but it will take from one week to ten days before they are delivered. A spokesman for the company said that only one day would be required for the repair work.

Charged with theft of 'bug whackers'

Mark E. Lewis, 17, of 2626 Sheridan Ave., and two juvenile boys, ages 13 and 16, were arrested at Saratoga Avenue and Maryville Road at 12:20 a.m. Friday and were charged with two counts of theft each for allegedly stealing electric "bug whackers" from homes in the area.

A witness reported seeing a trio of youths remove one bug whacker from the home of Earl Voss, 2916 Saratoga Ave., and police responded and stopped Lewis' auto leaving the area.

Three bug whackers allegedly were found in the car. The youths allegedly told police where they obtained two of the units and Voss and Jeff Pulaski, 2917 Maryville Road, identified them as having been stolen from their yards.

Police said the three could not recall where they obtained the third bug whacker.

Lewis was charged as an adult and the younger boys face possible juvenile court charges of theft.

Evacuate 5 homes for gas leak today

The residents of five homes in the 2900 block of Madison Avenue had to be evacuated from their homes for more than an hour early this morning when a gas struck the home of Ray Lake, 2906 Madison Ave., breaking a gas meter and causing a substantial natural gas leak.

Lisa Wolf, 20, of 1903 Edison Ave., said she was southbound on Madison Avenue and does not recall what happened. Evidence indicates that her car crossed both northbound lanes, went over the curb, into the yard and struck the corner of the house, damaging the brick foundation and knocking the gas meter off at 3:05 a.m. today.

Residents of two homes on either side of the Lake home were awakened by police and asked to leave their homes, due to the danger of explosion. An ambulance, wrecker, fire truck and Illinois Power repair crew were sent to the scene.

The driver was taken by a Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for treatment of visible injuries.

The gas was turned off and police said the area was secured with the residents back in their homes by 4:40 a.m. today.

News notes

Disagreeing with two architects who testified earlier that the old Madison County Jail should be preserved, Architect John Rapp said in a written deposition Friday that it is "simply a brick box with a few ornamental additions (that were) in a written cosmetic fashion in an attempt to hide its lack of architectural character. This cosmetic approach to building design was as typical then (1870) as it is today in its attempt to fool the eye by front-loading the facade."

There isn't a building in the entire history of architecture that is considered a major significance that did not have a continuity of design that was expressed throughout its structure."

The Legislative Committee of the Madison County Board voted unanimously Thursday afternoon against accelerated tax billing. Will County Treasurer Kent Bosworth called such a system "the worst possible thing that could happen; nearly everyone who has tried it hates it. It actually slows down the whole process."

The plan involves use of estimated tax bills for the first of two installments. Bosworth said billing costs double, and protests increase.

Madison County Treasurer Michael "Mick" Henkhaus says annual real estate tax bills will be mailed in September, with 30 and 90 days allowed from then for property owners to make their two payments.

Revenue to the Madison County government's general fund may total a record $12 million next year, County Auditor Arthur "Pete" Fields told the Finance Committee of the County Board last week.

A $100,000 budget surplus is projected for that fund. Annual income for all funds tops $35 million.

Available revenue in the state general fund rose $63 million from the end of the 1980-81 fiscal year June 30 to total $260 million on July 31.

Lending institutions and suppliers of materials of energy-saving products must apply by Aug. 15 if they intend to appear on lists being prepared for the residential conservation service program by the state energy agency, the Illinois Institute of Natural Resources.

Officers of the 22nd American Legion District will be installed in ceremonies at 8 p.m. Saturday at the Highland VFW Home, Illinois Legion Commander Melvin Smith of Arlington will be the speaker and installing officer. A dinner will start at 6:30.

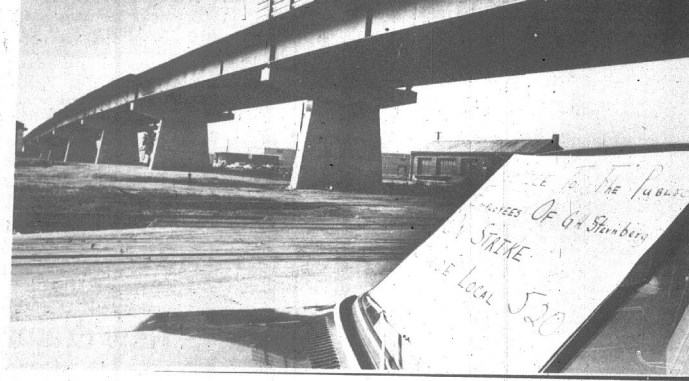

Rotary District 640 Governor William Masters of Havana, Ill., addressed Madison County Rotarians last week and will make his official visit to the Granite City club at 12:15 tomorrow at the YMCA. Addressing Granite City Rotarians last week was Keith Nieber, a family therapist, who discussed "The Structures of Families."

An upsurge in jobs for adult men has reduced national unemployment from 7.6 percent in May to 7.3 percent in June and 7 percent in July, the lowest since April 1980. Illinois jobless workers total 7.5 percent of the work force, down from 7.7 percent in June.

The Illinois Guardianship and Advocacy Commission has received a grant to employ 20 older persons as "paraguardians," or guardian assistants. They must be at least 15 and have low incomes. ## Police stop burglary of jewelry store

A would-be burglar who threw a brick through a window at Michel Jewelry, 1842 State St., was frightened off by a patrolling Granite City police squad car at 11:30 last night and it is not believed anything was taken.

An officer on patrol saw a youth walking south on State Street, acting in a suspicious manner, and as the squad car approached him, he turned into a small opening between 1838 and 1836 State St. and fled. Police were unable to locate him.

The officer then discovered that a brick had been thrown through a window of the jewelry store. Additional patrol cars were called to the scene.

He was described as 5 feet, 9 inches tall, of medium build and having long, dark, bushy hair.

Which tax must go up

BY KEN WATSON

SPRINGFIELD — Beefie, meenie, minee, moe, which tax must go up?

Gasoline, income, sales, liquor, cigarette, services, or what can you think of? That's the refrain being increasingly heard as Chicago's mass transit crisis once again slides toward the Statehouse.

Although the wolf howl has been floating down from the Windy City since January, there is a growing awareness that the RTA crisis is for real and that unless something is done soon the trains and buses will indeed stop running.

Mayor Jane Byrne's ill-starred effort to solve Chicago's problem on its own has proved to be the biggest fiasco since the Cubs last tripled a steal. Her sky-craper high tax program promises to set off the biggest rush westward since the opening of the Oklahoma Territory.

Business leaders have warned that Chicago, already staggering like a has-been fighter from steady losses in business and population, will be facing economic disaster if Byrne has her way.

It would be smug but stupid for downstaters to say, "Let Chicago go down the drain, so what?" As any knowledgeable downstate businessman will tell you, an economic collapse in Chicago would have severe repercussions all over Illinois.

Out of all the great hubbub which has been going on for months has come a realization that the mass transit situation in Chicago and its suburbs is a statewide problem and must eventually be solved at that level.

The scales are once again tipping toward a big picture solution to the RTA problem rather than the narrow one that prevailed in the closing weeks of the legislative session. A bailout plan for the RTA could well be part of an overall legislative package designed to shore up the state's finances, improve downstate roads and perhaps strengthen efforts to "halt the flow of industry and jobs out of the state."

It may take a program of such scope to attract the necessary votes to pass any legislation to meet the immediate transit problems. But a prelude to any such grandiose plan will probably require agreement on two specific conditions affecting RTA.

Byrne and other Chicagoans will have to agree to meaningful reforms in the administration of the RTA and CTA. These would include limits on current free-wheeling expense accounts and amenities such as chauffeur driven limousines for executives. A lid, if not a rollback, on the extravagant salaries paid train motorists, bus drivers and other RTA and CTA employees.

The state government, as dispenser of dollars from taxpayers throughout the state, will have to have a major say in how that money is used for mass transit in the Chicago metropolitan area.

Then there is the matter of an immediate increase in taxes, the peg on which the whole concept will rise or fall. The RTA is going to need money in a hurry. The question is from where.

The mere mention of an increase in the state income tax sends shudders through the Statehouse. Everyone remembers what the original income tax meant to the political career of Gov. Richard Ogilvie.

Illinoisans currently pay one of the higher state income taxes in the country. A married couple with two dependents and earning $15,000 a year pay $275. In New York the tax is $250, California, $92, Michigan, $257, Indiana, $237, Iowa, $321, and Missouri, $139.

Increasing the gasoline tax has been a favorite revenue-raising tool among states in recent years. Eleven states raised their gas tax last year and 10 the year before. Legislatures in 40 states have been considering gasoline tax increases this year.

Illinois is one of 12 states which have not raised the gas tax in 10 years despite the hefty increase in the price of gasoline at the pump. Attempts to tax the gross earnings of oil companies — in effect a gas tax — failed at the recent legislative session.

A statewide one-cent increase in the sales tax could be a short-term solution to the RTA crisis. Byrne has obtained such an increase in Chicago as part of her program to save the CTA. Liquor and cigarette tax increases could be expected to pass the legislature without too much trouble. But these in themselves would not raise enough money. They could, however, help swell the kitty.

In any event, the big question soon to be raised at the Statehouse will be which tax and how much?

Estimate 100 tires slashed

Vandals went through several areas of the city last night slashing or puncturing the tires of autos parked at the curbs. Most of the damage reports were being taken this morning by Granite City police, so no firm numbers on the number of tires slashed was available, but officers from the night shift estimated that as many as 100 tires may have been damaged during the night.

The first report was received at 8:55 p.m. Sunday when Madison County Sheriff's Deputy Herman "Rick" Wiesenberger reported a rear tire on his squad car had been punctured in the 1800 block of Forest Ave. The damage appeared to have been done with a knife.

Karen Kramer, 2435a Washington Ave., reported at 9:55 p.m. Sunday that all four tires on her pickup truck had been flattened. She also reported that someone had stolen $40 worth of food stamps from her apartment. Entry was believed gained by opening a window over the front porch roof. It is not known if the burglaries were related to the tire slashings.

Later Sunday night, Linda Apponey, 2348 Miracle Ave., reported the two left tires of her car were flattened while the car was parked in the 3100 block of Ash Avenue.

George Smolich, 3706 Fair Oaks Drive, also discovered that the two right tires of his auto had been cut.

Those were the only reports received during the night, but officers on patrol noticed the tires on numerous cars slashed.

This morning, as owners awoke to discover the damage, numerous reports of tire slashings were being received from several areas of the city, officers reported.

Dennis Coleman is found dead in home

Dennis Lynn Coleman, 33, of 2319 E. 24th St., was found without signs of life in his home at 3 p.m. Saturday and was declared dead by Madison County Deputy Coroner Leonard Davis at 3:20 p.m.

Police noted that there was a bottle of valium near the body and he had left a note for his wife, Della, on the bed which talked of dying and said, "I'll be gone by the time you get this."

His step-daughter, Deanna Smith, 12, said she was unable to get an answer at the door, so she crawled in an unlocked window and found Mr. Coleman face down on the floor of the rear bedroom.

She took the note he wrote and tried to find help. Police responded and summoned an ambulance and a deputy coroner. They said it appeared he had been dead for some time.

The last known person to see Mr. Coleman alive was a grandmother, who said he spoke to her about 4 p.m. Friday and said he was not feeling well and had pain in an arm and a shoulder. She said he was a diabetic.

Police noted that there was a prescription bottle near the body which still contained 50 valium pills, although the prescription was for another medication.

An autopsy was conducted Sunday morning and there will be an inquest held into the cause of death when laboratory results are available.

Funeral arrangements for Mr. Coleman may be found in today's obituary column.

ARREST ON WARRANT — Albert Banks Jr., 38, Brooklyn, Ill., was arrested in the 400 block of Broadway, Venice, at 4:15 p.m. Friday on a warrant alleging that he failed to pay his fine on a charge of unlawful use of a weapon. He was held in the Venice jail during the weekend, awaiting a court appearance.

Marissa holds off Trips for crown

Granite City rally falls 'just two feet short' in ninth

LAST RUN. Granite City's Rick Daily (right) gets a handshake from teammate John Vrenick after clouting a home run in the third inning of yesterday's loss to Marissa in the championship game of the Fifth Division Tournament in Marissa. As things turned out, it was the Triplets' last run of the season.

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

MARISSA — Manager Eldon Warfield watched action from the dugout. It was the top of the eighth inning. And he had a feeling. He looked at the one next to him. "Well, it's been..." But, his voice trailed off. Better than anyone, Warfield knew, not to count out Granite City. Even though his team was trailing at the time, Warfield knew better. He was right. On both counts. The Triplets went on to fall to Marissa 4-1 in the championship game of the Fifth Division American Legion Baseball Tournament here Sunday. But not before sending a ninth-inning chill into the spines of the Marissa faithful who packed the stands.

The victory for Marissa, which also won the District 22 championship over Granite City, sends it into the State American Legion Baseball Tournament in Waukegan this Thursday at 1 p.m. against Lombard, the Second Division champion. For Granite City, the season's over.

"I'm proud of the way we came back in the ninth inning," said Warfield. "We could have folded. We could have given up. After all, we hadn't been able to get to him (Marissa pitcher Mark Schulte) much all day. But our guys stayed in there. We came awfully close."

"How close? How about two feet from tying the game in the bottom of the ninth? Granite City was home team?"

With one out and two men on base, Triplet shortstop Danny Patterson stroked what looked to be a game-tying home run deep to left field. But it tailed fast at the end and went foul by a couple feet. After fouling off three pitches, Patterson did it again. Each time the Marissa fans went silent, and the Triplets dug out, came to life, following the long flight of the ball. And each time, the emotions switched from joy on the Triplets side to the Marissa side as the ball tailed past the foul pole in left field.

"I was thinking the game," said Patterson. "I went up there thinking I had to hit one out to tie the score. I thought the second one was out."

Warfield did too. So did most of the fans watching the game. "We just didn't quit. We didn't quit at all this season," said Warfield. "The second long foul by Patterson would've tied it up if not for the wind out there."

Home runs played a big part in Sunday's game. Marissa scored its first run of the game on one and the Triplets scored their only run on a solo blast by third baseman Rick Daily.

Daily's blast came with one out in the second inning and tied the game at 1-1. He stroked a Schulte pitch high in the air. And it kept carrying. And carrying. Kevin Pour, the Marissa left fielder, made an effort to catch the ball, but it was gone.

Pour had given his team a 1-0 lead in the top of the second inning with a long homer of his own to the same spot in left field. Pour, the Most Valuable Player in District 22 this season, knocked the cover off a pitch from Granite City starter Steve Doty, who was also the starter in Saturday night's semifinal victory over Harrisburg (see related story).

Marissa got two more hits in that inning off Doty, but could do no more damage. From that inning on, neither team could get more than one hit an inning. In fact, Granite City couldn't muster more than one hit in ANY inning.

"Schulte had good stuff today," said Warfield. "But we were hitting him. It just seemed that we hit the ball at somebody most of the time."

Triplets catcher Daren DePew was good evidence. In the bottom of the fifth inning, he hit a long fly to deep center field. The deepest part of the outfield. The Triplets bench came to life. They knew it was gone. So did the Marissa fans. But somebody forgot to tell Marissa center fielder Dan Pitchford. He flagged the ball down at the last split-second about a foot above the top of the outfield fence. If he hadn't caught it, it would've been a home run. But it didn't. Just another long out.

But perhaps the most frustrated Granite City hitter of the day was center fielder Bob Ford. Schulte had him frustrated with four strikeouts. In fact, it was Ford who ended the game with a strikeout in the bottom of the ninth. The Triplets center fielder did his job in the field. No fewer than four times, he ran down fly balls that would've given most outfielders fits. He made them look easy. "I can't believe the strikeouts," said the Granite City center fielder. "I should've hit him (Schulte)."

Doty's undoing came in the fourth inning. And what did him in was the pitcher's worst friend and a manager's nightmare — the walk. Three of them to be exact. Doty walked the first three batters he faced in the inning and two of them scored. That was all Marissa needed as things turned out. "Walks will kill you most every time," said Warfield. "Without the walks, they probably would've not scored in the inning and it's a different ballgame. But that's all part of the game."

After a pop out to Triplet first baseman John Vrenick, catcher Dave Rowald singled, driving home Schulte. After a strikeout, Doty walked number nine batter Wayne Hand, the Marissa shortstop, allowing Pour to score his second run of the game.

Doty settled down on the mound after the fourth inning problems, but the damage was already done.

MAGIC HANDS. Cardinal wide receiver Pat Tilley latches onto a pass from quarterback Jim Hart in the team's final workout Friday in St. Charles. Saturday night, Tilley latched onto a pass that counted in the end zone during the Big Red's 12-10 victory at San Diego. The Big Red now set up training camp in Seattle, Wash. for two weeks. They will face the Seattle Seahawks in their next exhibition game this Friday.

Big Red 'hafta have Hart'

By PETE HAYES

ST. CHARLES — Jim Hart looks like anything BUT a football player when he's in his street clothes. But on the field, there's no mistaking it. He's in charge.

Hart, the All-Pro quarterback for the St. Louis Cardinals, doesn't have the build of the stereotypical football player. After 15 years in the National Football League, his walk has become a swagger. HE doesn't run well, but then, he never could domuch running.

Hart is the most important cog in the Cardinals' machine. He's the one who gets things done game after game year after year. But his time's running out. Fifteen years is a long time to quarterback in the NFL. Once a free agent rookie out of Southern Illinois university who had to struggle to make the team, Hart is now the number one passer among active NFL quarterbacks. He's completed more passes for more yards and more touchdowns than any other quarterback now playing in the NFL. His stats are Hall of Fame caliber.

But his relationship with St. Louis fans has never been a totally good one. Despite leading the team to two division championships and mbeing named MVP in the entire league one season, St. Louis fans have never accepted him wholeheartedly. "It's a 'love-hate' relationship," said Hart. "It's the nature of the job. Every quarterback goes through it. Fans only know the outcome."

They don't really know what might have caused a pass to be incomplete. It bothers me more not to be recognized by my own club."

Hart referred to his recent contract squabble with the Cardinals front office. He reported to camp late, finally settling for a 10 percent raise to $275,000. Technically, it was no raise at all, because 10 percent is standard in the NFL. He said the holdout was a matter of principle more than money.

Last season, Hart had the second-most productive season of his career, completing 33.9 percent of his passes for 2,946 yards and 16 touchdowns. "The management said it was a mediocre season," Hart said. But it doesn't seem to bother him that much.

"I'm not really a controversial person," he said. "I really don't enjoy being in the limelight and I like to think I choose my words carefully."

"Basically, I have no regrets about playing my career in St. Louis."

"There have been times during the hussles that I've said to myself, 'Why do I put up with all this?'"

"But the times in my career I could have made a move, things were going

Cards thump Chargers

Special to the Press-Record

SAN DIEGO (SLRN) — The St. Louis Cardinals, engineered by two fourth quarter drives by rookie quarterback Neil Lomax, got a pair of field goals from Neil O'Donoghue to surprise the San Diego Chargers 12-10 in an NFL pre-season exhibition game here.

Lomax, the Cardinals' number two draft pick out of Portland State, completed 9 of 13 passes for 110 yards in less than one half of action. Following a 10-yard shanked punt by Larry Swider to the San Diego 45-yard line, the Chargers mounted a last-minute drive to the Big Red 25-yard line before Cardinal Bill Ackler blocked a Mike Wood 42-yard field goal attempt at the final gun to help preserve the victory.

The lone Cardinal touchdown came in the first quarter on a Jim Hart-to-Pat Tilley 25-yard pass play which gave St. Louis a 6-3 lead. The extra point attempt was blocked. Hart was 3-of-6 in passing and picked up 82 yards in the air. Hart played the first quarter and one series in the third quarter.

O'Donoghue accounted for the team's other points with fourth quarter field goals of 35 and 37 yards. The final field goal came with 6:54 remaining in the game and wiped out a 10-9 San Diego lead.

GRANITE CITY (III.) PRESS-RECORD, Monday, August 10, 1981 — 9

Warfield happy with his Triplets

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

MARISSA — In the distance, the Marissa American Legion baseball team was celebrating. Whopping it up. They had just won the Fifth Division Tournament championship. They were on their way to the State Tournament in Waukegan.

But Warfield's Granite City team wasn't going anywhere but back to Granite City. The Triplets had just fallen 4-1 to Marissa in the championship game. Warfield was proud of the things his team had accomplished this season. But at the same time he was a bit frustrated. After all, it was the fourth time this season that Marissa had beaten the Triplets.

First there was the regular season game July 7. Then there was the championship of the District 22 finals last Sunday. Then there was the opening game Thursday afternoon in the Fifth Division Tournament. Then yesterday's game.

"It's frustrating," said Warfield. "But things could've been a lot worse. We could have given up and gone down 1-2-3 in the bottom of the ninth today. But we didn't." Warfield was referring to the Triplets' ninth-inning rally that fell about two feet short of tying the game on a long foul ball by Dan Patterson.

"We had guys out there hustling. There were guys out there digging out the ground balls, even though it looked pretty bad for us."

That's been the way Warfield's team has played all summer. With the merger of the Glen Carbon and Tri-City teams into one Tri-City squad (Glen Carbon's team folded), people were pointing to the Triplets before the season even began as a possible North Division winner. But a funny thing happened — the Triplets didn't just wait through the rest of the league. In fact, they had to struggle to finish in third place in the final regular season North Division standings.

A critical victory over Collinsville on the last day of the season propelled the Triplets into third place and gave them a first round bye in the post-season divisional playoffs. After a victory over Edwardsville in the second round, the Triplets lost to Alton for the third time, dropping them into the loser's bracket of the double-elimination playoffs. A win over Bethalto sent the Triplets into the divisional finals against Alton, the team that finished in first place ahead of Granite City and Edwardsville during the regular season race.

All Alton had to do was beat Granite City once — at home — and the North Division championship would be its for the taking. But Granite City came back and drubbed Alton twice and cruised into the District 22 championship game against Marissa.

"That was the best example of how we came back this season," said Warfield. "All Alton had to do was beat us once. They'd beaten us three times already. But we battled back. Our kids wouldn't give up."

"They're a super bunch of kids," Warfield said. "The Super 12."

What? Only 12 players on the Granite City team? That's what was left once the playoffs began — few players than Warfield began the season with. Some six players left or were removed from the team by Warfield for not coming to practice sessions or to games. "I sure as hell didn't expect it," Warfield snapped. "When I ask these boys to come out and play, I expect a certain amount of commitment from them."

Corral wins doubleheader

By RICK WELLS
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Maryville Red Sox Manager Harold Oberkfell put yesterday's doubleheader and losso Corral Liquor, 6-4 and 7-4, in as simple terms as he could.

"It was a matter of mistakes," he said. "That's what beat us today. They're a good ball club. If you're going to win, you've got to beat them. That's the name of the game."

Despite the baseball clichés, Oberkfell couldn't have been more right Sunday at South High School. Corral played both games with only one error, while Maryville had two errors in each game.

"We came out here to win today," said Cowboy Manager Ken Crawford. "We came out here to win every day, but sometimes it just doesn't work that way. Today we did what you've got to do — take advantage of their mistakes."

The twinnish sweep clinches first place for Corral in the Inter-City League this regular season. The Cowboys are 16-3. Playoffs begin A critical victory over Collinsville on the last second place ahead of Granite City McDonald's. Currently with a 10-9 record, the Red Sox have one game left, a makeup game against Corral at Granite City Tuesday at 6 p.m.

In the first game Sunday, the mistakes weren't initially fielding errors by the Red Sox. After both Jamie Semanisin and Fred McClary Jr. were hit by pitches to lead off the first inning, Bob Ricker drew a walk.

Maryville's Marty Mestemacher then came through with a single to score the first two runners. Ricker, however, was caught at the plate on a relay from centerfielder Larry Burns to third baseman Jeff Stamper to Dave Hagenbrock at home. Mestemacher was then run down between second and third base for an unusual double play.

Corral scored one run in the first inning when pitcher Doug Bains doled and scored on a Tom Greco single. The Cowboys scored two more runs in the third on a single by Crawford and a two run homer by Mark Clark.

Illini still think sanctions are unfair

By PETE HAYES

Sports Editor

CLAYTON — The University of Illinois football program set out to make it business as usual here Friday. But, for at least the coming season, the Illini will have a sour taste in their mouths.

The Big Ten Conference, which had earlier placed the entire Illinois men's athletic program on three years' probation, taken away all conference revenue and said they couldn't take part in ANY post-season play in ANY sport, reduced the sanctions last week. They placed only the football team on probation and took away revenue for only one season.

The whole controversy erupted when former Illini quarterback Dave Wilson was declared ineligible last season by the Big Ten because of a discrepancy in his transfer from a California junior college. Wilson got a court order allowing him to play last season, but couldn't get one for this season. He has since been drafted by the New Orleans Saints of the NFL and is working out with the team at its training camp in Florida.

"Dave called me yesterday (Thursday)," said White. "He wanted to tell me how he felt about the sanctions. He said he wished he was still at Illinois." White said he was touched that Wilson (who's now earning upwards of $1.6 million tossing footballs for the Saints) took the time to call and voice his displeasure with the sanctions imposed by the Big Ten.

"That shows what type of person Dave Wilson is," White told reporters here Friday at the opening of a new Illinois Athletic Association branch office.

After Wilson decided the whole cause was lost and jumped to the NFL, the Big Ten decided to meet to further discuss the sanctions it had imposed. Last week, they were reduced. But the university, which still says it did nothing wrong in the affair, isn't happy about it.

"I'm very concerned about the total program," said Illinois head basketball coach Lou Henson. "even though the basketball sanctions have been lifted."

"We're in sympathy with Mike (White) because the football program is still on probation, but I think the total program will move along and overcome it."

"I hate to say this because my team isn't on probation, but I don't think a one-year penalty is going to hurt the football program that much. You can always tell a recruit that by the time he's ready to play the probation will be lifted."

But the Illini seniors will be the ones to suffer the most next season, even though the team hasn't even come close to going to a post-season bowl game since the 1964 Rose Bowl victory over Washington. Dick Butkus and Jim Grabowski were on that Illinois team. White said he was somewhat amused that the Big Ten insisted on keeping his team from going to a bowl game this season. "I'm proud that people are assuming that we'd be in that position," said White. "Illinois football has to overcome another major step to be ready for a bowl game, though."

Tony Eason, who most likely will replace Wilson at quarterback, said, "I don't think anybody's pleased. But there's not a whole lot we can do about it. We can't let it affect us. We'll have to come together and fight our way out of it. It'll be interesting to see how everybody reacts."

White sounded somewhat bitter. At least he said he was disappointed. "And you can throw a lot of adjectives in front of that word if you want to," he said. "I'm disappointed that the coaches and others who had no involvement surrounding the issues have been punished."

Special swimmers 'splash'

The Tri-City Chapter of the American Red Cross has wound up another series of summer swimming instructions for the handicapped. The special swimming lessons are under the direction Jo Higgins with the help of a team of volunteers.

Many returning students along with several new faces have been working very hard to learn the basics of swimming and water safety and some use the exercise as part of their daily physical therapy routine.

The classes are made possible through the generosity of the R.M. Bowler family whose swimming pool is used for the daily program.

Significant improvement was made this year by many of those who take advantage of the lessons. At the end of the summer program, awards were given not only to the students, but also to the many volunteers.

Waggoner wins State 'A' crown

JACKSONVILLE — Waggoner Trucking from Madison won the State Class A slow-pitch men's softball championship here yesterday with a 4-3 victory over Median Tavern of Bloomington.

Waggoner will now advance to the Midwest Regional Tournament in Cincinnati Aug. 21 through 23, along with state champions and runnersup from Indiana and Kentucky, metro champions from Chicago, Louisville and Cincinnati and host teams. It will be a 16-team affair.

In the State Tournament, Waggoner went through the field undefeated in seven playoff games. In the opening rounds, Waggoner defeated Kankakee Number Two 19-1 and Dutch Summers from Olney 7-6.

In the second session, Waggoner beat Lincoln-Douglas Savings and Loan from Jacksonville 13-1. Former Granite City and Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville pitcher Don Rains pitched for Lincoln-Douglas.

The next game, Waggoner defeated defending state champion Barracks-Old Style from Charleston 2-1. In the quarterfinals, Waggoner downed JPI of Effingham 11-4. The semifinals saw Waggoner dumping The Chalet from Jerseyville 10-8 to advance to the championship game last night against Medina.

Three Waggoner players were given All-State honors — pitcher Nip Hagnauer, shortstop Algie Crawford and outfielder Steve McKinney. Three others received honorable mention — second baseman Frank Paczewski, outfielder Don Sonnenberg and outfielder Mike Garland.

The team is now making an effort to raise funds for its trip to the Regional Tournament in Cincinnati. Anyone wanting to make a donation may call Sam Dymas at 877-6418.

Smith carries on family tradition

GRANITE CITY — Young Bo Smith of St. Charles, Mo., won his first late model feature event Saturday night at the Tri-City Speedway in Granite City.

Smith, driving a 1981 Camaro with a Smith-built 355 C.I. Chevy engine and a Smith-built Camaro chassis, started in the fifth spot and took over the lead from Rob Jones on lap three and went all the way on the half-mile dirt track for the win. Smith, only 21-years-old, has been driving only three years and is looking like one of the long line of Smiths as his father, Tom Smith, competes against him to keep up the family racing greats.

Mark Haas won the feature event for the street stock class, driving his Chevelle was untouchable. He put it through the banks of the one-fourth-mile track. Jim Medlock was running a close second but could not catch the low flying car of Haas.

The World-of-Outlaws sprint cars will return on Friday and Saturday nights Aug. 22 and 23 for the third annual Illinois Nationals. Gates open at 6 p.m. Races at 8 p.m. both nights.

This Saturday night will feature antique and classic cars on display and another 5,000 penny pick-up for the kids from the stands (keep what they find), as they are scattered on the front straight-a-way and then given the green flag, along with the limited late model stock cars and street stock cars. Gates open at 6 p.m., races at 8 p.m. $4 for adults, $1 for children 6 to 12 years old.

SIUE adopts women's soccer

EDWARDSVILLE — Located in one of the best soccer regions in the nation, Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville has adopted women's soccer to its list of club sports for the 1981 season, according to Athletic Director Eldon Bigham.

The soccer club, which will be coached by SIUE women's track and field mentor Lori Stark, is expected to play a 10-game schedule in its initial season. Limited to players who are full-time students, either at the undergraduate or graduate levels, the club has already scheduled contests against Southeast Missouri State University, Florissant Valley Community College, Quincy College and a pair of games against Lindenwood College.

Being a club sport limits the squad to local games with minor university expenditures, according to Bigham. "The club will have no scholarships but will receive limited athletic fundings for transportation," said Bigham. SIUE will also provide the women's soccer club with some equipment, uniforms, and some of the best soccer facilities in the area.

Try-outs for the first year club are set for Oct. 5, 6 and 7, on the SIUE campus. For further information, about the upcoming season, those interested may contact Stark by calling (618) 692-2871.

Following the soccer club announcement, Bigham also announced that due to the tremendous interest in local independent long-distance road races, SIUE will no longer sponsor a varsity women's cross country team.

But Warfield said he didn't think the removal of the players from the team hurt the morale. "It might have brought us closer together," he said. "We had one hell of a season."

Hart

(Continued from Page 9) pretty well here," he said, referring to the era when now-San Diego Charger coach Don Coryell guided the Big Red. During that period, the Cardinals were a powerhouse in the NFL and won two Eastern Division championships.

But off-the-field, Hart's been just about as active. In 1976, he was voted the NFL's Whizzer White Award for being the league's top humanitarian. There isn't a worthy cause in St. Louis that doesn't have Jim Hart's name associated with it.

The Fifth Division runnerup finish by the Triplets was the best finish by a Granite City Legion team since 1977 when they won the District championship, the Fifth Division title and advanced to the finals of the State Tournament in Chicago. Hart spoke in Granite City at the YMCA on the merits of good sportsmanship.

Hart's seen them come and go — the quarterbacks who'd like to unseat him and become the team's number one signal caller. Charley Johnson, Pete Beahard, Terry Nofsinger, Gary Cuzzo. Some seasons, the Cardinals didn't know who their quarterback was going to be from one Sunday afternoon to the next Sunday afternoon. The others are all gone now. But Hart remains.

Corral

The Cowboys scored three runs in the fourth on a walk to Jeff Tretter, a single by John Krekovich and an error to the third baseman. Clark doubled home two runs.

Rains went the distance for the Cowboys and picked up the win. He gave up only three hits. Steve Mishanec took the loss, giving up seven hits.

Game number two looked basically the same. The Cowboys jumped on losing pitcher Glenn Murphy for one in the first when Clark walked, stole second and scored on a Greco single. Designated hitter Krekovich made it 2-0 in the second inning with a solo home run about 330 feet to left-centerfield.

Maryville came back with three runs in the third. Corral scored two of its own in the third inning on a two RBI single by Hagenbrock.

In the sixth inning, Krekovich scored what turned out to be the winning run by doubling and scoring on a deep pop foul by Crawford. Corral scored three runs in the frame.

The Red Sox threatened in the seventh inning. With two here Sunday. It was Warfield, who pitched and played third base for then-manager Babe Champion in the 1977 championship season. "It was a little different then," said Warfield. "Everybody was shooting for us in the division tournament then. They expected us to do it. But this year, we got in because Marissa would've gotten a berth whether they won the district or not. We were runnersup this year."

Just then, Warfield was called away to accept the runnerup trophy from American Legion officials. After the ceremony, he returned, trophy in hand. "It ought to say 'champions' instead of 'runner-up,'" he said, gazing at the trophy. Then he looked down at the smaller trophy in his other hand. It meant almost as much to him. It was the Fifth Division Sportsman Trophy.

It has been a good year for Warfield and his Super 12.

Dan Herstein went the distance in the second game for Corral and got the win. He allowed the Red Sox six hits. Corral had seven hits.

Q. Several years ago, I heard about a very neat trick which could be used if one's checkbook failed to balance. I recall it had to do with a single number, but I cannot, for the life of me, remember what it was, or how it worked. Is it a trade secret, or general knowledge — or am I dreaming?

A. It's general knowledge, and the mystical number is "9." If you come up with a discrepancy between your account balance, and the bank's figure which can be divided by 9, two digits within some figure are probably transposed. For example, suppose the disparity between your balance and the bank's statement balance is $405. That is divisible by 9, and should be a clue to go looking for a transposition. Did you, for instance, write a check for $218, and enter it in your check register as $813.

HEALTH WISE

BY DR. E. L. STROTHEIDE CHIROPRACTIC PHYSICIAN

Scoliosis is the medical name for curvature of the spine. Some types of scoliosis are known to be the result of birth defects, nerve degeneration or muscular weakness caused by polio. If the causative condition is not known, we call it "idiopathic scoliosis," meaning unknown origin.

Chiropractic research reveals that this latter type of scoliosis is the result of an imbalance of the muscular support of the spine, due to imbalance, nerve function or other energy patterns.

When discovered early, as in teenagers or preteens, chiropractic adjustments are often effective in treating and correcting scoliosis.

United Way workers face rough task, but can succeed

Many people are talking about the 1981 campaign of the United Way and the limited availability of funds. Funds have always been limited and there is no such thing as a normal year. Sure, soliciting funds this year will be difficult—that is why so many talented, able solicitors have been selected to do the job. The job has never been easy.

Effective volunteer leadership will make the difference this year. It always takes extraordinary commitment to produce extraordinary results. It will mean giving a special contribution, asking effectively at the right level, and doing what each volunteer does best while getting others to do what they do best.

Contributors may not give their fair share just because a volunteer asks them. The United Way story must be told differently this year. We must find a way to make it so human, so caring and so sensitive that people regard it as something other than a periodic burst of fund raising. Rather, it must be presented as giving everyone who is able, a chance to belong and to help those who cannot help themselves.

Conditions are changing and no organization—profit or non-profit—can last in the American Society unless it responds effectively to changing conditions. Everyone must have meaning to their lives, and the best way is to make a commitment beyond one's self. The meaning of life isn't just handed to us like giving directions to someone. This is the year to test our commitment.

Soon a great number of dedicated volunteers will take the field in our area to meet the challenging goal of the 1981 United Way Campaign. Difficult? Certainly it is—nothing is easy—and because of the great need that exists in our area, contributors will be asked to increase their contributions over last year.

Pledges made this year generally will be paid from 1982 income, and we must assume next year will be better. Volunteers are ready now. We hope donors will welcome them with a fair share pledge. Extraordinary commitment and determination is needed to help make it a successful campaign with one overwhelming desire to help care for our own community people who for some unfortunate reason cannot care for themselves.

The world's finest way to make a simple job difficult is to put it off. So the trick this year is to get the job done in the shortest possible time span. A hard-hitting contest will work just so long before it loses steam. So the attack must be a hard-hitting, fast-moving kick-off meeting with an effective follow-up by all division chairmen and unit leaders commanded by the campaign chairman and the president.

Cynthia Perkins new housing coordinator

Cynthia Perkins, formerly of Granite City, and Jon West, Dubuque, Iowa, have been appointed housing coordinators at the University of Dubuque for the 1981-82 academic year. Perkins will supervise Aitchison and Severance halls, which house 205 students. The 145 male students also will be under the supervision of West.

Miss Perkins earned an MA in public administration from the University of South Dakota, and a BA from Eastern Illinois University. While completing her master's degree she served as an intern in the DakotaDome, an athletic facility, working with the business and ticket managers. She also acted as coordinator of program sales and of the ushers in the DakotaDome. A sports enthusiast, she coached freshman girls' basketball at Edwardsville High School, Edwardsville, Ill., last fall.

While in college she served as the manager for basketball and softball teams. She is a member of the American Society for Public Administration and the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance.

A 1973 graduate of UD, West has continued his association with the university for the past three years as the Spartans' assistant basketball coach and as an instructor at the summer Mid-America Basketball Clinic held at UD. West has been a salesperson at Kunerth's Sport Goods Co., Dubuque, for five years, and also served as a physical education instructor and coach at Galena Senior High School, Galena, Ill.

I went to the city council meeting on July 28, 1981, and made a request on behalf of our children's baseball banquet. The mayor said he would refer the matter to the aldermen in charge of handling things like this. I left the meeting feeling good.

As I inquired later about the donation the comptroller said no one had informed her about making out any check. So I went to the aldermen on the committee and they both agreed to donate a certain amount and both said they would give their ok.

I again checked with the comptroller but no authority had been given to write a check.

Open house at SIUE to introduce students to water quality control

An open house to introduce prospective students to a new one-year training program in water quality control operations will be held Thursday, Aug. 20, at the Environmental Resources Training Center at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Visitors can assist in the start-up and operation of the Center's 30,000-gallon-per-day pilot treatment plant that will be used in a training program, according to Susan Castle, ERTC program director.

The facility, the only one of its kind in the state, has training units for both water and wastewater treatment operation and will prepare graduates for state-required licensing exams for careers in operation, maintenance, sales, laboratory or consultant fields which have beginning salaries ranging from $10,000 to $14,000, she said.

Water quality control has become a complicated field since the United States decided to clean up its water by the '60s, Castle said.

"Every municipality or large manufacturer needs trained people to operate its multi-million dollar investment in the sewer or water plant," she said.

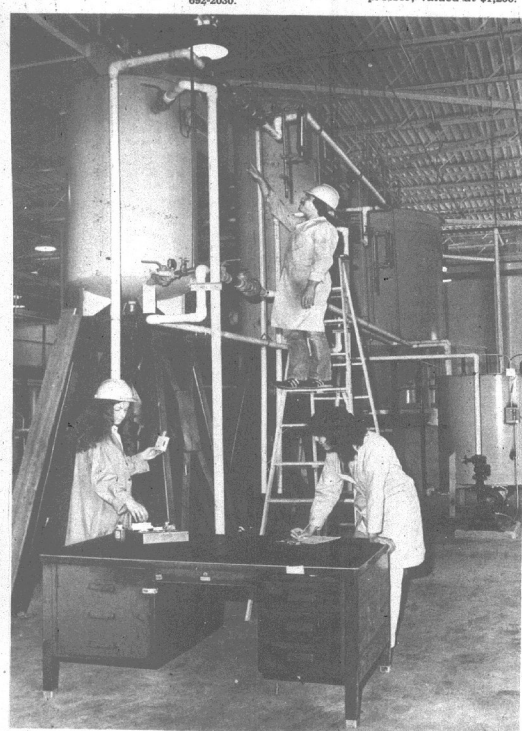

Castle likes to compare the cost of water plants to airplanes. "You couldn't dream of letting an untrained person fly a plane, but a person fly a water treatment plant costs lots more than an airplane," she said.

The open house will also include a tour of the University's nearby treatment plant, demonstrations of typical chemical tests and hydraulic or water pumping systems used in water quality control. Continuous video tape and slide shows will give an overview of water resource problems in general and show how water treatment plants work in particular.

One demonstration will let visitors see a microscopic view of the biological organisms in water and let them use the iron-manganese test to check its hardness.

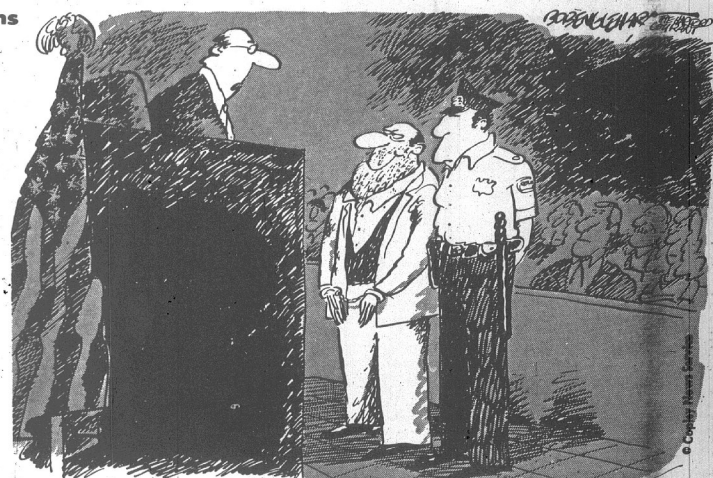

ERTC instructors and staff will also be on hand to answer specific questions about careers in water treatment and to counsel interested persons on specific programs. Students enrolling in the new one-year program beginning in September need not be admitted to the University or take any qualifying tests, Castle emphasized.

ERTC has been training water and wastewater operators from throughout the state to meet Illinois

Visitors also may learn about the center's new one-year training program which begins in September. Graduates of the training program qualify for various careers in water quality control at beginning salaries ranging up to $14,000.

Wants help for children Final 'Big Band' concert Thursday

To the Editor:

I told the comptroller to keep the check and tell the council to go where the devil lives.

If we have to beg the city council to help our children then we got the wrong people in office.

Everyone else helps our children and many that help are not even from Venice.

It is the city officials' responsibility to care for the children as well as they care for the senior citizens. Our children in Venice don't get a fair and equal share. It seems to me some of our city officials care for only certain groups of children.

The people that work all summer with the children are volunteers. They are not getting paid.

We are trying to help make better children out of them. I will never ask the city officials for anything else for our children as long as I live.

Only ask that if they don't like me, please don't take it out on our children.

If they want to fight with me, they will be sure losers, because God is on my side.

Dislikes Madison utility tax

To the Editor:

I am disgusted by the five percent utility tax imposed by the City of Madison. Today's electric bills are already too high without adding an additional 5.44 percent.

This tax was sneaked through quietly, without giving the citizens of Madison adequate advance notice to protest. Mayor Mike Saasyk certainly did not mention this tax when he was running for re-election. He waited until after the election to assess the tax.

This five percent tax is giving the Madison politicians a lot of money to play with. Venice only has a three percent utility tax and presently the City of Granite City has none.

This is just one reason the voters of Madison made a monumental mistake by re-electing Mayor Saasyk. If the Madison mayoral election were being held today, Mike Saasyk would be resoundingly defeated.

Final 'Big Band' concert Thursday

The final concert in the Granite City Park District's series of "Big Band" presentations is scheduled at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Wilson Park, near 27th Street and Delmar Avenue.

The concert will feature big band music from the 1940 era, performed by Stan Fornasewski, drummer, band leader, and his "Big Band Machine."

A special guest will be Charles B. Meneses, a KMOX broadcaster and a leading jazz proponent in the bistate region.

Meneses participated in last week's concert and commented that interest in outdoor band concerts is increasing rapidly throughout the United States.

He noted that similar concerts are presented every night in St. Louis parks.

Concerts here are offered free to the public by the Granite City Park District, with support from the Music Performance Trust Fund, American Federation of Musicians Local 17.

Area residents are invited to attend Thursday night's final presentation of the current summer season.

Appreciates concern of city's Fire Department

To the Editor:

Due to food I was cooking, it caught on fire and my house was filled with smoke, while I was in my basement working.

I went down to the Fire Department in my car to ask if someone could help me get the smoke out of my house. I couldn't get my storm windows open. When they heard the house was filled with smoke, the word went out and they were at my home before I was. I drove as fast as I could and when I got to my house the trucks were there.

Such marvelous efficient men, equipped for any situation that could have been. They were so helpful and kind. I will never forget how quickly they got the smoke out of my house. I apologized for asking the Fire Department to help me and they wouldn't accept it, saying "We're here to help in any way we can. I cannot express my thanks enough, to show my appreciation for the concern they showed when I needed help. I just want everyone to know, to feel secure and confident, that if you have need for the Granite City Fire Department, they will be there, ready, capable and skilled in their duties."

I was so impressed, I just have to write this so all of Granite City would know, in these times of economy strife and worry, goodness and kindness is here too.

Final arrangements have been completed by the Sisters of Divine Providence for the official dedication of the new $315,000 St. Elizabeth's Hospital annex by His Excellency the Right Reverend James A. Griffin, D.D., Bishop of Springfield. He will lead a procession from the hospital building and march to the new annex. John Tate's Band will furnish music for the procession. The addresses will be given and an annex to two hundred invited guests.

Verifying reports that he had halted an attempt to resume large bingo games at Venice-Madison American Legion Post 387, Mayor Leo Devany told the Press-Record Friday that he had ordered the operators not to conduct the illegal gambling. Interviewed after Friday night's city council meeting, Devany also said he personally issued instructions to St. Mark's Catholic Church, banning gambling for fund-raising purposes. His action was based on "orders from above"—county law enforcement officials. He emphasized that his orders stemmed from the position of county officials, who he said intend to maintain a gambling clampdown indefinitely.

Between Sept. 1 and Sept. 15 is the best time to establish a new pasture in the Madison County area. The first step in pasture establishment is to prepare a good seedbed.

GC serviceman receives award

AEI David H. Stoppkotte, a former Granite City resident, currently serving with the U.S. Navy at the Naval Air Station in California, received a certificate of accomplishment from the Chief of Naval Technical Training, presented by Commander Falcon NAMTGD Oinc, bestowing the title of master training specialist upon the serviceman for exceptional dedication to duty and completion of the demanding requirements leading to the designation.

Those requirements include a demonstration of excellence in leadership, technical competence, application of instructional methodology, and the desire to improve Fleet Readiness through quality instruction. His recommendation reads in part, "Petry Officer Stoppkotte is an outstanding instructor in all respects. He is industrious, thorough and accurate in his work, and he strives to ensure only the most up to date information is utilized to stimulate his students. As a direct result of his superlative efforts, both Fleet Readiness and the Navy's overall strength in the Aviation Electricians Mate rating have been significantly improved."

Stoppkotte is married to the former Deborah Hintz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hintz of Granite City. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Stoppkotte also reside here.

The service couple has a son Brian who is 3-years old and a 10-month old daughter, Beth.

Petry Officer Stoppkotte is a 1968 graduate of Granite City High School and has served with the U.S. Navy for 12 years.

Take a soil test to determine the amount of fertilizer and limestone needed to bring the field up to test. The ideal Ph for growing alfalfa and other legumes is 6.5 to 7.0. A grass pasture should have a Ph between 6.0 and 6.5. Phosphorus and potash needs can be determined from a soil test. Apply needed phosphorus, potash and limestone during the tillage process so that they can be thoroughly mixed with the soil. Phosphorus is especially important for seedling establishment.

Plant the seed of adapted varieties of high yielding legumes and grasses recommended for this area. A firm seedbed is essential for successful establishment of a pasture. It is important to have good seed-soil contact to obtain a good stand.

If the fertility level of the field being seeded is adequate, the method of seeding is not that important. Broadcast seedings are as successful and high yielding as band seedings. It is important to use a roller or some other tool to firm the soil to get good seed-soil contact.

There are several different pasture mixes that can be used. Alfalfa and orchard grass or alfalfa and Tall Fescue are commonly used mixtures. Legume grass mixtures, such as alfalfa and Red Clover, Ladino Clover and tall Fescue.

To obtain additional information on pasture establishment, we have the Agronomy Handbook available at the Extension office in Edwardsville. The publication sells for $1.50. The Agronomy Handbook covers various seed mixtures for either permanent pasture of a hay crop. The book also recommends a per acre seeding rate for each mixture.

Fall fertilizing of trees will result in more growth next year than spring fertilizing. This is the general conclusion of numerous studies relating to time of application and method. Oaks and Silver Maples are an exception.

These studies indicate a time-interval is important to allow trees to assimilate the fertilizer before new growth occurs. Fall fertilizing of turf permits trees to acquire the fertilizer and assimilate it before spring. Oaks and maples make a second spurt of growth in early summer which reflects the spring fertilizing.

When trees aren't a regular part of a lawn fertilizing program, make a special fall application of tree and shrub fertilizer. Double the rate and be sure to cover an area twice the spread of the limbs. If your tree is growing in a turf area that is fertilized regularly, it probably is getting enough. In exceptional cases, make a double application of lawn fertilizer, beneath your trees. Extend the double application at least to the drip-line of the limbs.

Wet weather may reduce harvest

By CHRIS DOLL

Area Garden Adviser

Because of the prolonged wet spring season, many potatoes, especially those growing in heavy soil, are going to show enlarged lentils ("pores") on their outer skin. These lentils can be described as whitish, scabby lesions, approximately 1/4 of an inch in diameter.

The taste and texture of the potato will remain the same, but the storage life may be decreased. This decrease is the result of increased "breathing" by the pores, and breakdown of the potato's tissues. Therefore, these potatoes are best eaten within a short period of time.

Recently, warm weather and an abundant supply of moisture contribute to Phthium, or soft rot development of vegetables, especially summer squash. Symptoms of the disease include a soft, watery rot accompanied at times by a white fungus growth over the surface.

The Phthium enters the vegetable either through old flower parts or a surface wound. In very wet conditions, an entry point isn't even needed, the fungus will infect an intact surface. This fungus infects and grows very rapidly.

Drying weather conditions will be the best control for this problem. Plants growing on well-drained soil and exposed to wind and sun will suffer less disease than those with dense foliage and on wet soil.

Grape harvest is near for Southwestern Illinois grape growers. The early varieties are now ripening, and mid-season varieties such as Concord will be ready in two to three weeks. Picking can begin whenever the flavor and sweetness are good enough to satisfy the taste. Concord is the standard blue grape and is used as a comparison for all others. Its distinctive flavor is outstanding for fresh use, juice, and wine. Two varieties with qualities similar to Concord are Buffalo, which ripens 10 days earlier, and Steuben. Niagara is the old reliable white grape. But Ontario, Portland, Aurora, and the seedless Interlaken and Himrod are excellent white grapes. Delaware is the standard of quality for red-skinned varieties. In addition to these, some of the French-American hybrids are growing satisfactorily.

Harvest-time brings to light the problems involved in grape growing. Downy and powdery mildew causes leaf and cluster discoloration and drooping. Fruit clusters become exposed to the sun and ripen unevenly, or not at all. These diseases have developed rapidly in recent weeks.

Black rot causes brownish circular leaf spots and black spotted or dried up fruits. The grape berry moth causes cracking and wormy berries. For these problems, a preventive spray schedule is required during the growing season. Sprays at harvest time are usually too late to be effective.

Uneven ripening of berries within a cluster may be from unusual growing conditions associated with excess foliage, over production, or drift of 2,4-D weed spray. With 2,4-D, the cluster will continue to ripen unevenly until they are all gone or it freezes.

The fruits are safe to eat, but they are low in sugar content. Distorted growth and leaves will be present. If it is growing conditions, try to maintain healthy foliage by spraying and balance the crop load by pruning more severely next spring. This harvest time is the time to evaluate your cultural methods and varieties and to enjoy the fruits of the vine.

Remember, your air conditioner needs AIR!

Three steps to cut cooling costs

You'll enjoy your home more this summer if you know you're keeping cool without squandering energy. Keep in mind that an air conditioner needs—what else?—plenty of air to operate efficiently. Keep the air flowing freely through your air conditioner and you'll save energy and have fewer maintenance problems.

Keep grill clean

Take a frequent look at the outdoor unit of your central air conditioning system. Keep the grill clean by removing leaves, dust and pollen with a brush.

Trim shrubs so air can circulate

In hot weather, fast-growing weeds and shrubs can choke off air circulation to the unit in a few days, so keep the greenery trimmed. Shrubs or ivy can cut off air to a window unit, too.

Change filters regularly

Also remember to change the filter on your air conditioner frequently because air can't circulate through a clogged filter. During heavy use, change filters once a month.

Expect 116 pupils at Lutheran High

Metro East Lutheran High School will begin its first full school year in its new Edwardsville building later this month with an increased enrollment and expanded course offerings.

An enrollment of at least 116 students is expected, compared to last year's enrollment of 79, according to Principal William Heinicke. Classes begin Aug. 24.

The school was established and is operated by the Metro East Lutheran High School Association, an association of nine area Lutheran congregations.

The school opened in 1977 with a freshman class of 15 students. Each succeeding school year, an additional class was added and the school's first senior class—14 students—was graduated in May.

Twelve of those graduates have been accepted for admission to colleges and universities, according to Heinicke.

He expects enrollments to continue to climb, projecting 150 students next year and an enrollment near the school's 175 capacity for the following year.

Beginning next year, expansion plans will likely be considered, he said.

The school had no permanent home until it moved to the new building on Center Grove Road last January. Classes had been held at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Wood River for three years and last year in facilities made available by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and Concordia Lutheran Church in Granite City.

Construction of the new building will be completed with installation of the gymnasium floor before the start of school. The building also has seven classrooms and a lobby which can be used for instruction.

Most of the finishing work inside the building was provided by parent volunteers, Heinicke said.

New courses this year will include offerings in computer processing, shorthand, geography and earth science. The school has eight full-time teachers and three part-time teachers.

All students are required to enroll in a religion course each semester, and the school has other requirements which go beyond state requirements, including a semester of typing and an extra year of mathematics.

The school has joined the newly formed Illini-Gateway athletic conference. Other members of the conference are Worden, Livingston, St. Henry's, Belleville, St. Paul's of Highland and Venice.

Metro East Lutheran competes in boys' soccer, basketball and baseball and girls' volleyball, softball and basketball.

Heinicke said he hopes the associations with the other schools in the conference will also lead to scholastic competitions.

Most of the school's students are from the Edwardsville-Collinsville area, with others from the Alton-Wood River area, the Quad-City area and other communities.

About 80 percent are from families which are members of the association's congregations.

Tuition for children of non-association families is $75. For children of association families, it is $950.

"What we offer is an education in a Christian environment," said Heinicke.

He said a growing number of parents seem to be interested in a Christian environment and the "more structured" atmosphere of church-associated schools.

However, the school should not be considered an "escape island" from public schools, Heinicke said. His judgment is that most of the problems of the public schools are also faced here.

"I'm thrilled with the quality and commitment of our staff and the togetherness and cooperation of the association congregations," said Heinicke, who became principal of the school last year.

"It's met all the expectations I had," he concluded.

The school is still accepting applications for enrollment in the sophomore, junior and senior classes, but freshman enrollment is closed.

Application forms may be obtained by contacting the school.

Plaids are predominate on clothing racks for back-to-school wardrobe

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK

County Extension Adviser

As in adult fashion circles, the big trends in kids' clothes this fall is the "Preppy" look. Plaids predominate the racks and can be found wherever jackets, pants, dresses and skirts are sold. These classic basics make a good investment any time but are especially in fashion this year.

This year's dresses for girls are understated, even to the point of being elegant, and that the frills and flounces of last year have made an exit. Shirt dresses as well as those dresses once termed the "Gibson Girl-Look" are back again and back big. Also good choices are skirts and blouses.

If you are shopping for growing girls make sure blouses have long tails to allow growth. Also note the hem width to see if it can be let down, if necessary, next year.

For boys, sweaters compete with sweatshirts this year and come with motifs ranging from cartoon personalities to Western heroes. Crew-necks and V-neck styles reflect the return to the classic look. Jacquard knits and geometric patterns are in abundance.

For both, overalls are plentiful and often are featured in conformity with complementing shirt and matching jacket.

Before launching a back-to-school buying spree, take an inventory of your child's current wardrobe and decide what still fits, what looks good as is an what needs to be altered, repaired or spruced up with a new belt, sash or trim that may be bought while you're shopping for new items.

And, don't forget to bring the child in on the decision-making process. While it's your money, he or she will have to wear what you buy and that outfit you thought was so cute at the store won't do anyone much good if it's left in the closet until it's outgrown.

From about the age of 3, children usually begin to express their likes and dislikes and should be encouraged to do so.

Smart parents will take their child shopping, select three or four suitable items and then let the child make the final decision.

One way to minimize tears and tantrums during the try-ons and take-offs at the clothing store is to let the child before you leave home so you can head right for the appropriate racks when you arrive.

Sometimes you may tend to forget how fast your children grow when you see them everyday but by having them try on their school clothes from last spring and doing some measuring before you get to the store, you can avoid the wasting time by having Johns or Mary trying on several sizes of the same item to get the right fit.

For young children, you will need chest, waist, hip and height measurements to determine right size when you get to the store. For boys, get height, inseam, chest and waist measurements. Girls' sizes are determined by height and weight as well as chest and waist measurements.

At 1:30 p.m., the group is scheduled to tour the historic Reiff House, now occupied by First Missouri Bank, before going to the Stone Hill Winery and touring the underground cellars, the wine-making areas and seeing antique wine exhibits, displays, the attic museum and visiting the tower for an excellent view of the town.

The bus is scheduled to leave Hermann at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday and return to the St. Elizabeth Medical Center parking lot about 5:15 p.m.

Persons interested in the trip may contact Rosemarie Linder at 798-3399 between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. today or tomorrow.

Seats available for trip to Hermann, Mo.

An all-day excursion to Hermann, Mo., including a tour of the Stone Hill Winery, is being arranged for Wednesday by Hospice of Madison County.

The tour is primarily for Hospice's social group for family members, Lost and Found, but 15 seats have been reserved for the general public and reservations are being accepted.

The cost for the trip is $21 per person.

The group will leave from the St. Elizabeth Medical Center parking lot at 2:00 p.m. Wednesday, where the travelers may park their cars free.

They will travel in an air-conditioned and restroom-equipped bus to High Hill, Mo., where they will have a coffee break at Nickerson Farms about 10 a.m. Wednesday.

Approximately 45 minutes later, the group will arrive at the German School Building and Museum in Hermann, where a guide will take them through the museum of dolls, toys and other attractions.

Rev. Sackett leads CF drive

"The voice of the St. Louis Cardinals," Jack Buck, chairman of the Gateway Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, has named the Rev. Chuck Sackett, chairman of CF Week in Pontoon Beach.

Rev. Sackett will be conducting a door-to-door drive this fall to raise funds which will support research and care for children affected by this leading genetic killer of young people.

Cystic fibrosis is a fatal lung and digestive disease affecting one of every 1,500 babies born in the United States. Both parents carry a recessive CF gene. One in 20 persons may be carriers without knowing it.

With continued research, a test may be discovered to determine who the carriers of the CF gene are. At this point, 50 percent of the CF patients are living to enjoy their 18th birthday and beyond, due to improved therapy.

"We all have to help out, so that our contributions can continue to lengthen the lives of young people with CF. We will knock on every door and ask for help in the fight against CF," said Rev. Sackett.

BURGULAR GETS LOOT
A burglary at the home of Howard Tomlin, 2148 Adams St., reported last week, netted the thief a 20 gauge pump shotgun, valued at $120, a stereo receiver and turntable, $350, an eight-track player, $170, and a sound equalizer, $60. Entry into the dwelling was gained by breaking a rear window.

Symphony Chrous auditions

Experienced, but not necessarily professional, singers with a musical background are needed for the 1981-82 season of the Saint Louis Symphony Chorus, which begins Sept. 10 with a performance of Beethoven's Symphony No. 9, the "Choral" symphony.

Auditions for the Chorus will be held beginning at 6 p.m. Monday, Aug. 24, at Third Baptist Church, Grand and Washington. Singers may call Powell Symphony Hall, 1-314-533-2500, to register for these auditions.

The Saint Louis Symphony Chorus is composed of approximately 150 singers who rehearse Tuesday evenings for performances with the Saint Louis Symphony Orchestra at Powell Symphony Hall.

In addition to the Beethoven concert, the chorus also will perform on five other Symphony programs this season, including performances of Handel's "Messiah," Dvorak's "Sabat Mater" and Bach's Cantata No. 4, the "Easter Cantata."

Founded in 1975, the Saint Louis Symphony Chorus is directed by Thomas Peck, a nationally-recognized choral conductor. The chorus is one of only five professional choruses affiliated directly with major symphony orchestras in the United States. Milwaukee Sentinel music critic Lawrence B. Johnson has written that the Saint Louis Symphony Orchestra "boasts one of the finest choruses anywhere."

In addition to performances in Powell Symphony Hall, the chorus has appeared with the orchestra on tour at Washington, D.C.'s Kennedy Center and Carnegie Hall in New York City. It has earned two Grammy nominations for its recordings with the Symphony, including the works of Rachmaninoff, Beethoven and Ravel.

Mediterranean exercises

Navy Electrician's Mate Fireman Mack A. Watts, son of Jessie and Annie L. Watts, 201 Weaver St., Venice, has returned from a deployment to the Mediterranean Sea.

He is a crewmember aboard the amphibious assault ship USS Nassau, homeported in Norfolk, Va.

During the two-month cruise the ship became known as the "Harrier Carrier" for sailing with 20 Marine Corps AV-8 "Harrier" vertical take off and landing jets from Cherry Point, N.C. Shortly after joining the 6th Fleet, the ship took part in a major NATO exercise where the units operated with two U.S. carrier groups as well as Italian and Greek naval units.

Nassau's deployment demonstrated the ability of the Navy to augment naval forces in any area of the world on short notice. Deploying with two "Harrier" squadrons, it also gave the Navy and Marine Corps an opportunity to evaluate the flexibility of the aircraft in the high tempo of operations with the carrier groups.

Tuition for the two-hour, 16-week course is $17 per credit hour or $34. Registration for the course is under way now through Aug. 19 at the BAC main campus, 2500 Carlyle Road, Belleville.

BAC course on microcomputers

Belleville area College has entered the age of microcomputers.

During the summer semester, the college first offered "Introduction to Microcomputers and Basic Programming," a course designed for newcomers to microcomputers.

Because of the success of the course, several sections will be offered, day and night, when fall classes begin Aug. 24. There are no prerequisites for the course, which is listed as Business 299 in the BAC fall schedule mailed to your home recently.

Tuition for the two-hour, 16-week course is $17 per credit hour or $34. Registration for the course is under way now through Aug. 19 at the BAC main campus, 2500 Carlyle Road, Belleville.

The creation evolution controversy

By PROF. F. HENRY FIRSCHING
SUIVE School of Science & Technology

Over 120 years ago, two men, Charles Darwin and Alfred Russell Wallace, proposed the theory of evolution. Both men had developed the theory independently, but announced it jointly. Darwin is usually credited with the theory, because shortly after the original disclosure he published his famous book, "The Origin of the Species." Ever since that time, biology groups have been studying and testing this theory. The fundamental ideas have become more firmly established as more and more information has been collected. The end result of all this effort is that the theory of evolution is now a bulwark of biology. It has been stated, "That nothing in biology would make sense without evolution as a governing principle." Evolution explains so much for biologists.

All science is fundamentally based on theory. The scientific method takes these theories, these ideas, and tests them rigorously for validity. Those that prove to be wrong are discarded or modified. Those that are shown to be correct are used to predict and explain phenomena. The scientific method is always attempting to approach the real answer. Science is not dogmatic or authoritarian. It is just the opposite. Science is always questioning, always testing, to see if the fundamental ideas of science are correct.

Currently, biologists are genuinely interested in the actual mechanism that evolution followed. There is discussion and even dissension about some of these fine points. But working biologists have no problem with the basic tenets of the theory of evolution.

So what is the controversy all about? The problem arises because there are fundamental Christian religious groups that are alarmed at the way the world appears to them. They blame evolution for much of the evil they see in the world. (If only it were that simple!)

These people want the "evils" of evolution countered by the biblical version of creation being taught in the science classrooms on an equal basis with evolution. This presents a real dilemma for them. In our society, the separation of church and state is firmly established. Creationists know that if they are straightforward and honest about biblical creation they will get nowhere with school boards, state legislatures, and the judicial system.

To overcome this difficulty, they have fabricated a new name for the biblical version of creation. It now has the title, "The Scientific Creation Theory." They know very well, that is not even remotely related to science. And what is even worse, there is no theory (I have never been able to find it, either written or spoken. If any of you readers know about it send it to me. I would like to see it.)

In fact, they want this non-existent theory to have equal time in the science classroom with a real time-tested scientific theory. And furthermore, they even claim that evolution is not really a scientific theory but a religious belief.

There is another vexing problem. If we are to believe the creationists, then we must discard a large portion of scientific information. According to them, most of biology is incorrect as well as a large portion of chemistry and physics. And geology is in dreadful shape. They conveniently ignore the fact that science is eminently successful.

We have: jet airplanes, space exploration, color television, anti-biotic drugs, synthetic fibers, and routinely find coal and oil deposits around the world. How can any undertaking that is so productive be dismally incorrect about as many things as the creationists claim?

There is one last problem. If the creationists succeed in having the Christian version of creation taught in the classroom, then so should the Hindu, Moslem, Buddhist, and other versions also be included. Many religious belief systems explain creation in their own unique way. Perhaps most of these religious creation versions could be taught in a social studies class or some other appropriate area, but not in the science classroom. Masquerading religious beliefs as science is very objectionable, and this is what the controversy is all about.

Labor Day Parade Sept. 7

Plans are nearly complete for the Sept. 7 Labor Day Parade through Madison and Granite City and members of organized labor are being encouraged to make plans to participate.

The parade committee of the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council met Saturday to put the finishing touches on the parade plans and announced that the marchers, floats and other units will assemble at 9 a.m. on Labor Day on the ball field at 12th and Iowa Streets in Madison. They then will march to Madison Avenue and will use Madison Avenue into Granite City. The parade will disband at the parkway near the Granite City Post Office at 23rd Street and Madison Avenue where free refreshments will be served to the marchers. All members of organized labor are encouraged to march in the parade and show solid support for labor in the Quad-City area.
